

FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION

DUE AUGUST 15, 2011

HIGH HOLY DAYS

In 2011, Erev Rosh Hashanah is Wednesday, September 28, and Kol Nidre is Friday, October 7. As our thoughts turn to the coming of the New Year, several items that contribute to our observances need your attention.

I. FLOWER FUND

It has been the congregation's custom to set aside a special fund for the purchase of fresh flowers for the bima on the High Holy Days. A donation in any amount is greatly appreciated and may be indicated on the accompanying form.

II. GREETINGS FOR THE NEW YEAR

It has also been the congregation's custom to send New Year's greetings to one another through our newsletter, The Journal. Let's continue this "in-reach" to each other in 5772! The cost is $5.00 per greeting and each will be printed in either the September or the October issue. A typical greeting might be:

L'shanah tovah from the _____ Family

Please write your greeting(s) on the accompanying form.

III. YISKOR BOOK

This is the ONLY opportunity you will have to submit the names of family members and friends whom you wish to have included in the Yiskor book on Yom Kippur. You may submit as many names as you wish. The cost is $5.00 per name for each of the first five names, then $1.00 per name for any additional names (e.g., 6 names = $26.00). Please list the names on the accompanying form. Note: All names on the memorial plaques are read during the Yiskor service, but these are not included in the Yiskor book unless they are submitted now.

IV. FOOD DRIVE

Keep in mind that the JCNWJ sponsors a food drive in conjunction with the High Holy Days. Start putting aside non-perishable items (no matzah, please) now. Bring them to the Center during the period from Erev Rosh Hashanah through Yom Kippur.

Print and return the accompanying form with your check, payable to the Jewish Center of Northwest Jersey, by August 15. We will not be able to accept any requests after that date.

If you need any further help or have questions, please call Jennifer Rosenblum at (908) 835-9229.
